

THE BEACON

April 2019 Volume 1 Issue 11

Steps, Traditions and Concepts

Al-Anon's program of recovery is based on the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous. The Steps are the foundation for personal recovery and the Traditions help groups sustain their unity and fellowship.

Step 4

Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves

Tradition 4

Each group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting another group or Al-Anon or AA as a whole

Concept

Participation is the key to harmony

Let it Begin With Me
MTP

LET IT BEGIN WITH ME

When anyone, anywhere reaches out for help, let the hand of Al-Anon and Alateen always be there and...

LET IT BEGIN WITH ME."

Have You Pondered A Slogan This Week?

Principles Above Personalities

We come to Alanon because we have something in common. We have been or are affected by someone else's drinking. In our closing statement, we hear: Though you may not like us all you will come to love us in a very special way. Tradition Twelve reminds us that anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles above personalities. Take a pause.... Think about it!

Heard at a meeting...

“Don’t say anything unless it makes an improvement over the silence!”

What I learned in recovery...

“I had the most wonderful sad week.
I was sad. I was just sad. It was okay.
I didn’t have to DO anything.
I was ok to just BE sad!”
